

All employees, contractors and visitors must receive an appropriate site / job specific orientation before being allowed on a site

Report all unsafe acts, conditions and incidents to qualified personnel

Follow the drug and alcohol policy by arriving fit for duty

Only work on or near high voltage equipment with proper authorization

Never override or disable safety critical equipment without authorization

Work within the permit system

Obtain proper authorization before undertaking ground disturbance activities

Obtain authorization before entering a confined space or restricted area

Use proper personal protective equipment and keep it in good working condition

Protect yourself against a fall when working at height

Observe our safe vehicle operation rules

Demonstrate respectful work place behaviour